About MECAT

MECAT, conducted by the Media and Entertainment Skills Council, is India's largest aptitude test for admissions to various programs in the Media & Entertainment Sector, including animation, visual effects, gaming, and filmmaking. It is widely accepted by numerous universities, colleges, and training institutes across the country. MECAT serves as a standardized test to assess a candidate's creativity, aptitude, and readiness to pursue a career in the Media & Entertainment Sector.

Understanding the Report

To assist individuals in identifying the best career options available, it is crucial to possess comprehensive knowledge about their aptitudes, skill orientations, and behavioural abilities. Advanced technological innovations are utilized for this purpose, ensuring accurate and complete results regarding individuals' skills, aptitudes, and behavioural abilities. You have successfully completed a scientifically proven assessment test based on the aforementioned criteria. The following pages will present you with a detailed report based on your assessment, which will guide you towards your career path. It is advised to review the report attentively as it will provide valuable insights.

Report Stucture

This report is divided into three sections to provide a comprehensive analysis:

Part 1 - Personality: This section focuses on understanding your core personality and associated behaviours. It covers various aspects such as your strengths, weaknesses, decision-making patterns, interpersonal relationship patterns, and communication style. By exploring these aspects, you can gain insights into your personality traits and how they influence your career choices.

Part 2 - Multiple Intelligence Orientation: This section utilizes the MIO assessment to help you identify your different orientations to intelligences. It serves as an indicator of your interests and preferences regarding various skill sets. Understanding your multiple intelligence orientations can guide you towards career paths that align with your strengths and areas of interest.

Part 3 - Suitable Media and Entertainment Career Segments (Career Families): Fitment, or the suitability of a career, is the central focus of this section. Here, you will discover the fitment percentage for each Media and Entertainment career option based on your assessment. A higher fitment percentage indicates a greater likelihood of success in a specific Career Segment. Furthermore, this section provides an overview of different careers available within each Media and Entertainment Career Segment, helping you explore potential avenues in the Media and Entertainment industry.

Note: This report is based solely on the responses you provided during the assessment and does not take into account your educational background or qualifications. Instead, it offers valuable insights into your aptitudes, expertise, behavioural abilities, and more.
